Champs rally late

After four unearned runs in the fourth inning, the Ottawa Champions found themselves down 7-1 to the upstart Salina Stockade. Ottawa put together a five-run fifth inning, but it wasn't enough, and Salina emerged as 8-6 winners. The Champs rallied late and got the winning run into the batter's box, but ultimately couldn't capitalize and now find themselves losers of ten of their last 12.

Nyisztor reaches milestone

INF Steve Nyisztor recorded his 100th hit as a member of the Ottawa Champions on Wednesday. Nyisztor joined the organization midway through the 2017 season and has been the club's everyday second baseman this year. Nyisztor has also surpassed Mike Schwartz for eighth on the Champs all-time hits list. In 89 career games, Nyisztor has a .255 average with four home runs and 51 RBIs. OF Sebastien Boucher is the all-time Champions hits leader with 328.

Guglietti returns

INF/OF Vinny Guglietti looked to have incurred a serious injury on Wednesday when he fell to one knee during an at-bat. However, the hulking 25-year-old was able to return to the lineup and play first base on Thursday. Guglietti showed no signs of rust, going 1-for-2 with a run scored.

Scouting the Stockade

One of two travel teams in the Can-Am League this season, the Stockade are based in Salina, KS. The club only has one player that was drafted by a major league organization – RHP Kevin Kelleher, who was selected by the Boston Red Sox in 2015. Salina also has a former Champion on their roster in INF Robert Garza. The 25-year-old played 20 games with Ottawa in 2016.

Zirbes a bright spot

INF Kyle Zirbes had the best game of his Champions career on Thursday. The first-year player went 2-for-2 with two walks and a run scored. Zirbes also earned his first career triple on Wednesday night against Quebec.

Can-Am League offence

Much has been made about there being more strikeouts than hits in Major League Baseball in the early part of 2018. That is not the case in the Can-Am League, though. Through the first 50 games of the season, there have been 832 hits and 723 strikeouts. Quebec hurlers have the most K's with 145 in 17 games, while the Champions have only struck-out 82 batters in 15 matchups. The Rockland Boulders are proving that they once again have plenty of power, as they 22 homers this year; that's more than Sussex County, Ottawa and Quebec combined.

Tonight's Starting Pitcher

#32 – RHP Jordan Kurokawa

Kurokawa has turned it around following a rocky start to this Champions career. He gave up seven earned runs on ten hits in only 1.2 innings against New Jersey in his first outing. But in his last start on June 2nd versus Sussex County, the Honolulu, HI product went five innings without surrendering a lone earned run. Kurokawa has impressed with his command – he has walked a single batter over this 12.2 innings pitched.

About Ottawa Champions Baseball

2018 will mark the 4th season of professional baseball from the Ottawa Champions organization. Founded in 2014 to serve a community with a rich baseball history, the Champions first took the field as members of the independent Can-Am League in the spring of 2015. It didn't take long for the team to find success, as they won the Can-Am League Championship in only their second year of existence. The franchise is owned and operated by Miles Wolff, who has nearly 50 years of experience in professional baseball.

About the Can-Am League

The Can-Am League is one of the historic names in minor league baseball. The modern incarnation of the league was started in 2005 as an independent circuit in the north-eastern United States and Canada. Currently the league is home to six franchises; Ottawa, Quebec City, Trois-Rivières, New Jersey, Sussex County (New Jersey) and Rockland (New York). The Can-Am League also plays host to travel teams every year. In 2018, the Dominican Republic national team and the Salina (Kansas) Stockade will tour the league.

About RCGT Park

Raymond Chabot Grant Thornton Park (formerly Ottawa Baseball Stadium) located in the cities east end, just off highway 417. The stadium was opened in 1993 and served as the home of the Ottawa Lynx, then a AAA affiliate of the Montreal Expos. Interesting enough, the dimension of RCGT Park are an exact replica of those at the Olympic Stadium when it was configured for baseball. The park also played host to the Ottawa Rapidz (Can-Am League) and the Ottawa Fat Cats (IBL), but lay vacant from 2012 to 2015 when the Champions gave the 10,332-seat stadium a new life.
