Champs starters looking good on road trip

The Champions went 5-2 during their Quebec road trip last week, dropping only a lone game to Quebec and Trois-Rivières. Ottawa's starting pitching was a large reason for their success, with RHP Jordan Kurokawa winning both of his starts and RHP Jake Hale and RHP Austin Chrismon each turning in impressive performances. Kurokawa is now one of only three pitchers to have won eight games in the Can-Am League this season. Meanwhile, LHP Scott Maine picked up two saves in less than 24 hours.

Harris honoured

CF Chase Harris was named the Can-Am League's Player of the Week. Harris went 11-for-30 last week, extending his hit streak to 16 games. The dependable outfielder has been stellar for the Champions since being moved to the leadoff spot in mid-July.

Bick, Brown reach milestones

SS Daniel Bick and RF Steve Brown each earned their 100th RBI during the Champions week-long road trip. Both now sit in a tie for second on the Champions all-time list with 102 runs driven in a piece. The top three Champions in the all-time RBI list are active, with DH Sebastien Boucher leading the way with 209 and Bick and Brown behind him.

Scouting the Jackals

The Jackals season just got a whole lot tougher with 1B Dean Green bolting for the Mexican league last week. Green was leading the Jackals in batting average (.355) and was top five in the Can-Am League in average, home runs and RBIs. OF David Harris is still a catalyst for Brooks Carey's team with an OPS over 1.000. The Jackals also recently picked up INF Taylor Oldham off waivers from Trois-Rivières.

Jones signed

The Champions have signed RHP James Jones. Jones will work out of the bullpen and spent the first half of the season with Sioux Falls of the American Association. RHP Ryan Leach was released by Ottawa and subsequently retired from professional baseball.

Miners pull away

The Sussex County Miners have opened up a 10.5-game lead over the rest of the Can-Am League. The Miners swept the second-place Quebec Capitales last week and now find themselves 27 games over .500, thanks in large part to a 9-1 record in their last ten games. It could get worse for Quebec, as they open up a three-game set with the Rockland Boulders this week. Rockland is only a half-game behind the Capitales in the standings. Depending on other results, Quebec could fall as far as fourth-place.

About Ottawa Champions Baseball

2018 will mark the 4th season of professional baseball from the Ottawa Champions organization. Founded in 2014 to serve a community with a rich baseball history, the Champions first took the field as members of the independent Can-Am League in the spring of 2015. It didn't take long for the team to find success, as they won the Can-Am League Championship in only their second year of existence. The franchise is owned and operated by Miles Wolff, who has nearly 50 years of experience in professional baseball.

About the Can-Am League

The Can-Am League is one of the historic names in minor league baseball. The modern incarnation of the league was started in 2005 as an independent circuit in the north-eastern United States and Canada. Currently the league is home to six franchises; Ottawa, Quebec City, Trois-Rivières, New Jersey, Sussex County (New Jersey) and Rockland (New York). The Can-Am League also plays host to travel teams every year. In 2018, the Dominican Republic national team and the Salina (Kansas) Stockade will tour the league.

About RCGT Park

Raymond Chabot Grant Thornton Park (formerly Ottawa Baseball Stadium) located in the cities east end, just off highway 417. The stadium was opened in 1993 and served as the home of the Ottawa Lynx, then a AAA affiliate of the Montreal Expos. Interesting enough, the dimension of RCGT Park are an exact replica of those at the Olympic Stadium when it was configured for baseball. The park also played host to the Ottawa Rapidz (Can-Am League) and the Ottawa Fat Cats (IBL), but lay vacant from 2012 to 2015 when the Champions gave the 10,332-seat stadium a new life.
